4. Instructions for Speakers at Oral Sessions

1) The presentation data must be registered in advance.
2) In principle, the registered presentation data cannot be replaced or modified.
3) If you have any problems with your presentation data, please ask the PC Preview Center.
4) Presentations by bringing your own PC will not be accepted.
5) Please follow the time schedule for the presentation as shown below;
6) Presentation time depends on whether you are presenting at ICRPT or JSMP.

ICRPT: The total presentation time is 10 minutes: 7 minutes for oral presentation and 3 minutes for discussion (including the time for the next presenter to take over).

JSMP: The total presentation time is 12 minutes: 8 minutes for oral presentation and 4 minutes for discussion (including the time for the next presenter to take over).

5. Instructions for Moderators at Oral Sessions

1) Chairpersons are requested to check in at the Registration Desk at the session venue at least 10 minutes prior to the session start time.
2) The total presentation time is different between ICRPT and JSMP sessions.

ICRPT: Presentation time is 10 minutes in total: 7 minutes for oral presentation and 3 minutes for discussion (including the changeover time to the next presenter).

JSMP: Presentation time is 12 minutes in total: 8 minutes for oral presentation and 4 minutes for discussion (including the changeover time to the next presenter).

3) A colored light box is placed in front of the chairperson and presenter to indicate the time remaining for the presentation. The yellow light indicates that the presenter has only one minute remaining in his/her presentation time. The red light indicates the end of the presenter's presentation time.
4) Sessions may proceed at the discretion of the chairperson, but try to adhere strictly to the time schedule.

To access the abstract text for the first time, a password is required.

The password for viewing abstracts is: jrc2024yokohama

Abstracts will be available on the app in early April.

17. The participants from IOMP (International Organization for Medical Physics) and AFOMP (Asia-Oceania Federation of Organizations for Medical Physics)

We would like to specially note that we are promoting the participation of colleagues who are members of IOMP and AFOMP in the oral presentations. We hope this meeting will be a continuing opportunity for all participants to deepen cooperative scientific relationships with colleagues in the same fields. We believe this opportunity will serve to further boost development in both research and clinical aspects of medical physics beyond country.
